In conjunction with the execution of the Indenture, the Authority and American Airlines, Inc. ("American") entered into that certain Facilities Agreement dated as of August 1, 2000 (the "Facilities Agreement") pursuant to which American agreed to make payments sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds, when due. Pursuant to the Indenture, the Authority assigned to the Trustee all right, title and interest of the Authority in and to the Facilities Agreement. Additionally, American and the Trustee entered into a Guaranty dated as of August 1, 2000 (the "Guaranty"), pursuant to which American unconditionally guaranteed the payment of the principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds, when due. The original principal amount of the Bonds remains outstanding. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indenture, the Facilities Agreement or the Guaranty, as applicable.

Claims Trading Motion

This Section Contains Important Information About Court Ordered Restrictions on Trading Bonds

On January 27, 2012, the Bankruptcy Court entered a “Final Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code Establishing Notification Procedures for Substantial Claimholders and Equityholders and Approving Restrictions on Certain Transfers of Interests in the Debtors’ Estates” (the “Claims Trading Order”). The Claims Trading Order (1) imposes certain notification requirements on “Substantial Claimholders,” which would include holders of the Bonds, upon the filing of a disclosure statement for any plan of reorganization that seeks to utilize certain tax attributes of the Debtors, and (2) imposes certain restrictions on the acquisition of claims by Substantial Claimholders (or those who would become Substantial Claimholders by virtue of any such acquisition) upon the approval of a disclosure statement for any plan of reorganization that seeks to utilize certain tax attributes of the Debtors. The Claims Trading Order may also require Substantial Claimholders to sell down a portion of their beneficially-owned claims prior to the effective date of any plan of reorganization that seeks to take advantage of certain tax attributes of the Debtors. A Substantial Claimholder is defined to include any entity that beneficially owns $190,000,000 or more of the Bonds or other bonds or debt of the Debtors, although such amount is subject to increase or decrease as the Debtors determine to be appropriate consistent with the goal of preserving the value of their tax attributes. Bondholders who are interested in the Claims Trading Order may request a copy of the Claims Trading Order from the Trustee’s counsel identified below.

Creditors’ Committee

As previously reported, on December 5, 2011, the U.S. Trustee for the Southern District of New York appointed an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”), comprised of nine (9) members. The Trustee sought appointment to and was appointed to the Committee. The Committee has engaged the law firm of Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom LLP as counsel and Moelis & Company, LLC and Mesirow Financial Consulting, LLC as financial advisors.

Regarding Proofs of Claim

A bar date for filing proofs of claim on account of prepetition debt has not yet been set. On behalf of itself and the holders, the Trustee will timely submit proofs of claim against the Debtors in the total amount due on account of the Bonds at the time of the bankruptcy filing, plus the fees, costs and expenses of the Trustee. Consequently, it is unnecessary for individual holders to file proofs of claim with respect to the Bonds.

Remedies/Direction to the Trustee

Under Section 11.6 of the Indenture, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Bonds Outstanding have the right, after furnishing indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all proceedings by the Trustee to be taken in connection with the enforcement of the Trustee's rights and remedies under the Indenture, the Facilities Agreement and the Guaranty provided such direction is not otherwise than in accordance with law or the provisions of the Indenture. The holders' ability to direct the Trustee is further subject to the requirements of, inter alia, Section 11.6 and Article XII of the Indenture, which, among other things, state that the Trustee shall be under no obligation to institute any suit or to take any remedial action under the Indenture or any other documents relating to the Bonds until it shall be indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all reasonable costs, expenses, and liabilities, including counsel fees and other disbursements.

Retention of Counsel

The Trustee has retained the law firm of Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP and specifically, Kristin Going of that firm, to represent it in connection with the Chapter 11 Filing, the Events of Default, and the Bonds. Ms. Going's address is Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, 1500 K Street, N.W., Suite 1100, Washington, D.C. 20005 and her telephone number is 202-230-5177.

Trustee's Fees and Expenses

Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, in its capacity as Trustee for the Bonds, has incurred and will continue to incur fees and expenses, including attorney's fees, from time to time. The payment of the Trustee's fees, expenses and disbursements and the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel shall be paid pursuant to the Indenture, as well as any indemnities owing or to become owing, prior to the payment of the Bonds. These expenses include, but are not limited to, compensation for Trustee time spent and the fees and costs of counsel and other agents, and its employees, to pursue remedies or other actions to protect the interests of holders.
