Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 9, 2015, Caesars Entertainment Corporation (“CEC”) and Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc., a majority owned subsidiary of CEC (“CEOC”), announced that holders (the “Consenting Creditors”) of more than 60% of claims in respect of CEOC’s 11.25% senior secured notes due 2017, CEOC’s 8.5% senior secured notes due 2020 and CEOC’s 9% senior secured notes due 2020 (collectively, the “First Lien Notes” and, the claims with respect thereto, the “First Lien Bond Claims”) have signed the Amended and Restated Restructuring Support and Forbearance Agreement, dated as of December 31, 2014 (the “RSA”), among CEC, CEOC and the Consenting Creditors. As a result, the RSA became effective pursuant to its terms as of January 9, 2015. Additionally, the advisors to certain of the Consenting Creditors have notified CEC and CEOC that, subject to the closing of certain purchases of additional First Lien Notes, which CEC and CEOC have been notified is scheduled to occur today, the Consenting Creditors will hold, in the aggregate, over 67% of the First Lien Bond Claims which shall be subject to the RSA.

There can be no assurances that such purchases of the additional First Lien Notes will close.

A copy of the press release announcing the effectiveness of the RSA is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Caesars Entertainment and Caesars Entertainment Operating Co. Announce Effectiveness of Restructuring Support Agreement

Plan Supported by More Than 60% of First Lien Noteholders

LAS VEGAS, January 9, 2015 — Caesars Entertainment Corporation (NASDAQ: CZR) (“Caesars Entertainment” or the “Company”) and its subsidiary Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc. (“CEOC”) today announced that holders (the “Consenting Creditors”) of more than 60% of claims in respect of CEOC’s 11.25% senior secured notes due 2017, CEOC’s 8.5% senior secured notes due 2020 and CEOC’s 9% senior secured notes due 2020 (collectively, the “First Lien Notes” and, the claims with respect thereto, the “First Lien Bond Claims”) have signed the Amended and Restated Restructuring Support and Forbearance Agreement, dated as of December 31, 2014 (the “RSA”), among Caesars Entertainment, CEOC and the Consenting Creditors. As a result, the RSA became effective pursuant to its terms as of January 9, 2015.

Additionally, the advisors to certain of the Consenting Creditors have notified CEC and CEOC that, subject to the closing of certain purchases of additional First Lien Notes, which we have been notified is scheduled to occur today, the Consenting Creditors will hold, in the aggregate, over 67% of the First Lien Bond Claims which shall be subject to the RSA.

“We are pleased to have the support of our first lien noteholders on CEOC’s restructuring plan. This is an important step in the process that will allow us to move ahead with our plan to create a strong and sustainable capital structure for CEOC,” said Gary Loveman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Caesars Entertainment and Chairman of CEOC.

Forward Looking Information

This release includes "forward-looking statements" intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements contain words such as "may," "will," "expect," "would," "continue," or "future," or the negative or other variations thereof or comparable terminology. In particular, they include statements relating to, among other things, the proposed restructuring of CEOC, the purchases of First Lien Notes by certain Consenting Creditors and future outcomes. These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events.

Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or results and involve risks and uncertainties that cannot be predicted or quantified, and, consequently, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following factors, and other factors described from time to time in the Company's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (including the sections entitled "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" contained therein):

- the ability to retain key employees during CEOC's restructuring;
- the effects of CEOC's bankruptcy filing on Caesars Entertainment and its subsidiaries and affiliates, and the interests of various creditors, equity holders and other constituents;

- the event that the restructuring of CEOC may not be consummated in accordance with its terms, or persons not party to the agreement described in this release may successfully challenge the implementation thereof;
 - the effects of the bankruptcy court rulings in the Chapter 11 case and the outcome of such cases in general;
 - the length of time CEOC will operate in the Chapter 11 cases or CEOC's ability to comply with the milestones provided by the restructuring support agreement;
 - risks associated with third party motions in the Chapter 11 cases, which may hinder or delay CEOC's ability to consummate its restructuring plan as contemplated by the restructuring support agreement;
 - the potential adverse effects of Chapter 11 proceedings on Caesars Entertainment's liquidity or results of operations;
 - the impact of CEOC's substantial indebtedness and the restrictions in CEOC's debt agreements that might limit CEOC's ability to negotiate and complete its restructuring;
 - litigation outcomes and judicial and governmental body actions, including gaming legislative action, referenda, regulatory disciplinary actions, and fines and taxation, including but not limited to, the assertion and outcome of litigation or other claims that may be brought against Caesars Entertainment and CEOC by certain creditors, some of whom have notified Caesars Entertainment and CEOC of their objection to various transactions undertaken by Caesars Entertainment and CEOC in 2013 and 2014;
 - CEOC's significant liquidity requirements and substantial levels of indebtedness;
 - increased costs of financing, a reduction in the availability of financing and fluctuations in interest rates in connection with CEOC's restructuring;
 - economic, business, competitive, and/or regulatory factors affecting the businesses of Caesars Entertainment and its subsidiaries generally;
 - the effects of local and national economic, credit and capital market conditions on the economy in general, and on the gaming industry in particular;
 - changes in laws, including increased tax rates, smoking bans, regulations or accounting standards, third-party relations and approvals, and decisions, disciplines, and fines of courts, regulators, and governmental bodies;
 - the effects of competition, including locations of competitors, competition for new licenses and operating and market competition;
 - abnormal gaming holds ("gaming hold" is the amount of money that is retained by the casino from wagers by customers);
 - construction factors, including delays, increased costs of labor and materials, availability of labor and materials, zoning issues, environmental restrictions, soil and water conditions, weather and other hazards, site access matters, and building permit issues;
 - access to insurance on reasonable terms for Caesars Entertainment and CEOC's assets; and
 - the impact, if any, of unfunded pension benefits under multi-employer pension plans.

Any forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and, as such, speak only as of the date made. Caesars disclaims any obligation to update the forward-looking statements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date stated or, if no date is stated, as of the date of this filing.
